

It is my belief that no one, including TV and radio stations, political parties, telemarketers, scam artists and special interest groups, have a right to call me without my consent.

I support extension of the do not call principle to all calls not specifically preapproved by the telephone line subscriber.